Mike Gibson puts the moves on an anonymous Clark administrator during last month's Bilaga dance as riot police look on. The attempt failed, prompting a recent series of resignations.

Marty Mohr on the Outside

by Martin Mohr

Dear Clark University,

(Well with much ado about nothing here it is, if the layout suck well I can blame it on Randy. I hope that if the text sucks I can do the same. I figured that after 4 years at Clark that I would show the world (we clark) close how terrible my grammar is. If I can make it through anybody can.)

To update clarkies on the "inside" what life is like on the outside... well not as bad as initially predicted. Moving back home can certainly be a drag but other than that not so bad. Personally, I have spent lots of time in a part time job in the 'burbs of NY and studied hard(ly) for the LSATS. Anyone who wants advice on those either see a pro or ask a novice for some scap answers.

Well my efforts did pay off, and I will be attending a law school in the fall. Other than that John Guess has been nagging my about life and the damn article.

I have seemed to have gained a reputation among one of a quotation connoisseur; well, to be honest, it's just a very big library. But funny at that. But many who know me also know me for my love of the anecdote. One of my favorite anecdotes is "hey you could screw up a one car funeral." Not as funny as "I can't believe that out of 100,000 sperm you were the quickest." unknown (to this day I content that to be the ultimate comeback for any jackass retort made to you.)

Well back to the subject: ways to screw up a one car funeral...

1. forget the body
2. forget to close the door to the hearse.
3. drive backwards.
4. drive 80 mph that ought to mess up the motorcade. Wait, it's a one car funeral...
5. have John Guess deliver to body (you should have seen some of my pizza's last year.)
6. invite J. Dahmer. Enough said.
7. ask to be Beamed up.
8. I am determined to make it to ten.
9. Why is six afraid of seven? Seven ate (eight) nine. Duh
10. lock the trunk and use a luggage rack. (Don Henley reference)

Well now that I have actually penned my first article. I will readily accept and flames, comments, questions, or condemnations of my humor. I can be reached at MMohr@juno.com or mmohr@nyc.

pipeline.com or mmohr@vax.clarku.edu. Heh a many looking for a country what can I say.

Hasta la vista,
Marty

P.S. my spelling does suck, I know that it falls into grammar but I KNOW that even spellcheck will laugh at me. Oh and btw if there are any suggestions for a next issue (including not being included) please let me know.
